

Residents know Kennesaw as a great place to live, learn, work and play. The city's combination of small town charm, a great location in northern Cobb County, and plenty of parks, green spaces and cultural facilities, offers an outstanding quality of life.

Visit Smith-Gilbert Gardens and take a leisurely stroll through verdant plants, flowers, and original sculptures. Or learn about city and Civil War history at the Southern Museum. Take a picnic lunch to Swift-Cantrell Park, and don't forget to let Fido run in the dog park. And enjoy a variety of events, sports, programs and classes offered by Parks & Recreation.

It's all right here in Kennesaw. Enjoy!
